FULLERTON COLLEGE

Founded in 1913, Fullerton College is the oldest community college in continuous operation in California. As one of five institutions of higher learning in the city of Fullerton, the college is an integral part of a complex higher education system. Fullerton College offers a comprehensive academic program of lower division transfer courses and vocational training to prepare students for transfer as well as for the technology-driven workplace.

The 83-acre campus features 10 major instructional buildings that include conventional classrooms as well as laboratory facilities for science, art, computer technology, photography, automotive services, physical education and other specialized programs. A full complement of athletic fields and facilities surrounds the campus.

The college enrolls in excess of 19,000 students. There are 315 full-time faculty and approximately 480 adjunct faculty, who are supported by 283 classified employees and 43 managers. Dr. Kathleen Hodge is the President.

Fullerton College can be found on the web at www.fullcoll.edu.
