SCE – “Change. Cultivated.”

Established in 1930, the North Orange County Community College District’s School of Continuing Education (SCE) is the fourth largest community college-based continuing education community education program in California. Students enroll in SCE’s noncredit programs to enhance basic skills, gain employable skills, and prepare for credit courses, for self-sufficiency or to enhance civic participation. Noncredit programs offered at SCE include adult basic skills (High School Diploma and literacy programs), English as a second language (ESL), U.S. citizenship, parenting, older adults, short-term vocation, and programs for adults with disabilities. In addition, SCE offers a wide selection of community services courses such as Kids’ College and Teen Program, fitness, home decorative arts, business skills and financial planning.

SCE serves 40,000 students annually, ranging from preschoolers to seniors, at three center locations in Anaheim, Cypress, and Wilshire (Fullerton) as well as 100 off-site locations. Accredited by the Accrediting Commission on Schools division of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and part of the California Community College System, all SCE courses are approved by the State of California. More information on SCE programs can be found at www.sce.edu. NOCCCD’s School of Continuing Education – Change. Cultivated.

NOCCCD – “Greatness. Achieved.”

The mission of the North Orange County Community College District is to serve and enrich our communities and inspire life-long learning by providing education that is exemplary, relevant, and accessible.

Two of the state’s premiere colleges and one of its most extensive continuing education education programs combine to provide the quality educational programming of the North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD). Nearly 64,000 students enroll each term at Cypress College, Fullerton College, and the School of Continuing Education. Our college students are able to shape their futures in programs leading to associate degrees, vocational certificates, and transfer opportunities. Life-long learning also is possible in our continuing education programs that range from high school completion and basic skills mastery through an array of vocational training and self-development courses. The NOCCCD campuses serve an area of over one million diverse people – each pursuing their own, unique ambitions. The NOCCCD – Greatness. Achieved.

The District is governed by a seven-member Board of Trustees, elected by trustee area, by registered voters residing in the District. The Chancellor is Dr. Ned Doftoney. The total District budget for 2013-14 was $190 million.

Cypress College and Fullerton College offer associate degrees, vocational certificates, and transfer education as well as developmental instruction and a broad array of specialized training.

The School of Continuing Education offers a variety of academic, training, and enrichment opportunities, including: high school completion, basic skills mastery, vocational certificates, and self-development courses.
