2012 Officers Elected to NOCCCD Board of Trustees

At the December 13, 2011 meeting, the North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD) Board of Trustees appointed Board Officers for 2012:

- President – Molly McClanahan of Fullerton
- Vice President – Donna Miller of Buena Park
- Secretary – Jeffrey Brown of Yorba Linda

Molly McClanahan, former council member and mayor of the City of Fullerton, has served on the NOCCCD Board of Trustees since November 1995. Among her many affiliations, Ms. McClanahan is a member and past president of the North Orange County League of Women Voters, and a member of the Friends of Fullerton Arboretum, Tree Society of Orange County, and Fullerton Sister City Association.

Donna Miller retired from Cerritos College in 2011 as a professor of speech communication. She has served on the NOCCCD Board of Trustees since December 1996. Ms. Miller was honored with the Outstanding Faculty Award at Cerritos College in 1993 and 2010, and was former president of the National Community College Forensics Association. She is also a trustee for the Buena Park Library District.

Jeffrey Brown is a senior engineer of research and development with the Orange County Sanitation District, and has served on the NOCCCD Board of Trustees since March 2002. He is a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, California Water Environment Association, and Chorale Bel Canto.

NOCCCD: “Greatness. Achieved.”

Two of the state’s premiere colleges and most extensive continuing education program combine to provide the quality educational programming of the North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD). Nearly 64,000 students enroll each term at Cypress College, Fullerton College, and the School of Continuing Education. College students are able to shape their futures in programs leading to associate degrees, vocational certificates, and transfer opportunities. Life-long learning also is possible in continuing education programs that range from high school completion and basic skills mastery through an array of vocational training and self-development courses. The NOCCCD campuses serve an area of over one million diverse people. The NOCCCD – Greatness. Achieved.
