Dr. W. Cherry Li-Bugg Appointed NOCCCD Vice Chancellor, Educational Services and Technology

Anaheim, Calif. – Chancellor Ned Doffoney today announced the appointment of Dr. W. Cherry Li-Bugg as Vice Chancellor, Educational Services and Technology for the North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD). Dr. Li-Bugg is an accomplished academic administrator with 15 years of administration experience in higher education in California. She previously served as the Director of Academic Computing for Santa Monica College, the Dean of Information Technology and Services for Los Medanos College, and, most recently, the Dean of Learning Resources and Educational Technology for Santa Rosa Junior College.

The Board of Trustees ratified Dr. Li-Bugg’s hiring during its May 13, 2014 meeting. “Dr. Li-Bugg’s training and experience make her an excellent fit with NOCCCD's leadership team, and we believe she has the vision and knowledge to help us achieve our goals,” said Board of Trustees President Jeffrey Brown. “She has a strong track record in leading change initiatives that promote student success and is known for her ability to build strong internal and external networks.”

Dr. Li-Bugg holds a Master of Arts degree and Masters in Library and Information Science degree from the University of Texas at Austin. She earned her doctorate in Education and Human Resource Studies, with a specialization in Community College Leadership, from Colorado State University.

Dr. Li-Bugg wrote her dissertation on Asian American leadership in community colleges, and her current research interests include Program Review and Its Relationship to Classroom Research and Institutional Effectiveness; Hybrid Classes and their Effect on Student Learning Outcomes; and Strategies for Faculty Inquiry and other Dialog Practices for Instructional Effectiveness.

NOCCCD Background

Two of the state’s premiere colleges and most extensive continuing education program combine to provide the quality educational programming of the North Orange County Community College District (NOCCCD). Nearly 70,000 students enroll each term at Cypress College, Fullerton College, and the School of Continuing Education. College students are able to shape their futures in programs leading to associate degrees, vocational certificates, and transfer opportunities. Life-long learning also is possible in continuing education programs that range from high school completion and basic skills mastery through an array of vocational training and self-development courses. The NOCCCD campuses serve an area of over one million diverse people – each pursuing their own, unique ambitions. The NOCCCD – Greatness. Achieved.
