Education Code Section 67385 and 67836;
20 U.S.C. Section 1092(f)
34 Code of Federal Regulations Section 668.46 (b) (11)

- 1.0 Alleged victims of sexual assault, including but not limited to rape, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, as defined by California Law, shall be referred to local community treatment centers if appropriate on-campus treatment facilities are not available.
  - 1.1 “Dating violence” means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of a romantic or intimate relationship will be determined based on the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
  - 1.2 “Domestic violence” includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by:
    - 1.2.1 A current or former spouse of the victim.
    - 1.2.2 By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common.
    - 1.2.3 By a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse.
    - 1.2.4 By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under California law.
    - 1.2.5 By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under California law.
  - 1.3 “Stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or to suffer substantial emotional distress.
  - 1.4 An affirmative consent standard is the determination of whether consent was given by both parties to sexual activity. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other or others to engage in the sexual activity. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent, nor does silence mean consent. Affirmative consent must be ongoing throughout the sexual activity and can be revoked at any time. The existence of a dating relationship between the persons involved or the fact of past sexual relations between them should never by itself be assumed to be an indicator of consent.
  - 1.5 “Affirmative consent” means affirmative, conscious and voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity.
- 2.0 All students, faculty members or staff members who allege they are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking on District property shall be provided with information regarding options and assistance available to them. This information shall
