Cal. Const., Art. 1 Section 1;
Government Code Section 3543.1(b)

- 1.0 The District owns and operates computer and electronic communication systems that support the District's mission of providing instruction and support services to students. Employees and students who use District computers and networks and the information they contain, and related resources, have a responsibility to not abuse those resources and to respect the rights of others. The Chancellor shall establish procedures that provide guidelines to students and staff for the appropriate use of information technologies. The procedures shall include that users must respect software copyrights and licenses, respect the integrity of computer-based information resources, refrain from seeking to gain unauthorized access, and respect the rights of other computer users.

See Administrative Procedure 3720, Computer and Electronic Communication Systems.
