

WE ARE HERE FOR YOU

SPEAK OUT

REACH OUT FOR SUPPORT,
BECAUSE YOU ARE NOT ALONE

WHAT CONDUCT DOES TITLE IX PROHIBIT?

Title IX prohibits sexual harassment, discrimination on the basis of sex, and any instance of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I HAVE EXPERIENCED SEXUAL HARASSMENT OR ASSAULT?

GO TO A SAFE PLACE

If you are in fear of your safety, call 911 immediately.

For an assault on campus, call Campus Safety at:

Cypress College (714) 484-7387
Fullerton College (714) 992-7777
NOCE (Anaheim Campus) (714) 808-4911

SEEK EMOTIONAL CARE AND SUPPORT

The Rape Crisis Hotline has counselors available 24 hours a day at: (714) 957-2737, (949) 752-1971 or (714) 834-4317.

The College Campus Health Centers are also available to provide assistance at:

Cypress College (714) 484-7361
Fullerton College (714) 992-7093
NOCE Students at the Anaheim Campus may call Campus Safety for a referral at NOCE (714) 808-4911.

GET MEDICAL ATTENTION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

Seek medical attention to assess and treat physical injuries you may have sustained and to collect evidence of the assault. If you are on campus, you can visit the Campus Health Services Center for assistance.

REPORT THE ASSAULT TO THE CAMPUS TITLE IX COORDINATOR

Cypress College Title IX Coordinator (714) 484-7335
pdedios@cypresscollege.edu

Fullerton College Title IX Coordinator (714) 992-7088
ELipizgonzalez@fullcoll.edu

North Orange Continuing Education Title IX Coordinator (714) 808-4660
mgutierrez@NOCE.edu

REMEMBER THIS EXPERIENCE WAS NOT YOUR FAULT. REACH OUT FOR SUPPORT, BECAUSE YOU ARE NOT ALONE.

The Title IX Coordinators can help you with supportive measures such as no contact orders, providing chaperones, and extending work or class deadlines. The Title IX Coordinators also help process complaints of unlawful discrimination based on things such as race, religion, and ethnicity.

